

Journal 1

The embassy in Berlin has just been given a bomb threat . The security of your ambassador is in question. The local police are being sent in to see if they can keep the ambassador safe. Due to the high security everyone needs to give proof as to who they are. You must include as much info. about themselves as they can, including their eye color, description of hair, age and description of your physical appearance