

“Like” in German

Name _____ Datum _____ Stunde _____ Num _____

Teil 1:

1. Read- German has two ways to say “like”.

*If you are saying you like a person, group, place, thing, or idea (noun), then you use “mag”

*If you are saying you like to do something, like an activity (verb), then you use “gern” (gladly)

2. Write how you can explain the difference between mag & gern.

3. Get your vocab and write the following English translation in the “like” for nouns box.

“Like” for nouns
Was magst du?- Ich mag Fussball.	What do you like? I like soccer.
Was magst du nicht? Ich mag nicht Fussball.	What do you not like? I don't like soccer.

4. Write 6 German sentences about things you like.

Example- Ich mag Imagine Dragons. or Ich mag Pizza.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Teil 5: Ask 5 people in German what they like and fill out the chart .

Question- Was magst du? Ich mag.....

Name

Teil 6: Get your vocab and write the following English translation in the "like" for verbs box.

"Like" for verbs (actions)

Was machst du gern?

What do you like to do?

Ich spiele gern Basketball.

I like to play Basketball. / I play gladly BB.

Ich tanze gern.

I like to dance. / I dance gladly.

Ich gehe gern ins Kino.

I like to go to the movies. / I go gladly to the movies

Teil 7: Sentence structure- as you see in the vocab, "gern" must go in a particular place in the sentences.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

Person	Verb	Gladly	Activity
Ich	spiele	gern	Golf.
Ich	tanze	gern.
Ich	höre	gern	Musik.

"GERN" comes after the verb in each sentence.

"GERN" IS NEVER IN THE SECOND PLACE ON THE SENTENCE

Write the following activities into sentences stating you like to do it.

Ich spiele gern Basketball.

1. spielen Basketball _____
2. kochen _____
3. gehen ins Kino _____
4. fahren Skateboard _____
5. schwimmen _____
6. spielen Videospiele _____
7. lesen _____
8. texten _____

Teil 8: Ask 5 people in German what they like to do and fill out the chart .

Question- Was machst du gern?

Name

